Privacy authority

Commonwealth Privacy Act 1998

Authority to seek credit information

I/We agree that for the purpose of the Privacy Act (as amended) and for the purpose of the Seller assessing the Applicant's Application for Credit and administering any credit which is provided to the Applicant, the Seller may obtain:

- Information relating to my/our commercial credit worthiness
- A credit report; and/or
- Personal information from any credit reporting agency or any financial institution or credit provider whose name appears in credit report supplied to the Seller or whose name is given to the Seller by me/us ("Information").

Authority to disclose information

I/We agree that the seller may disclose to, or discuss with, any reporting agency, and prospective guarantor and any person or body agreeing or considering whether to agree to be liable for any credit to be made available by the seller to the Applicant, any information maintained or in the possession of the Seller relating to my/our application for, or the administration of the credit.

Declaration

I/We understand/authorise the Seller to obtain and use personal information about me/us in accordance with the Privacy Act (as amended) and acknowledge that the authorisations contained in this document will continue to remain in full force and effect until all credit facilities cease to be made available.
